I am requesting electronic copies of the following records — as per the Freedom of Information Act:

Any and all emails since 2024 in which Department of Homeland Security/Immigration and Customs Enforcement staff discussed decreasing the length of time in which training is provided to new ICE Enforcement and Removal Operation officers — from 13 weeks to 8 weeks then again to 6 weeks.

Keywords may be but are not limited to "train" "training" "new Enforcement and Removal Operation training" "new ERO training"

If any portion of this request should be denied, I request that the remainder be fulfilled.

Electronic copies are requested. This is also a request for fee waiver, should any fees be imposed, as this information will be used to inform citizens of the actions of their public officials, of their rights and responsibilities, of news and current or passing events, and for articles of opinion or features of interest to the public.

Sincerely,
