

Maryland Deserves Better

STATEMENT ON REPORTING RELATED TO BCCC PRESIDENT'S CONTRACT

Baltimore, Maryland, 9/21/2023

The Executive Board of AFSCME Local 1870, which represents the bargaining unit employees of Baltimore City Community College (BCCC), is aware of Mr. Andrzejewski's reporting for Open the Books on the compensation package received by BCCC President Debra McCurdy.

If the reporting holds true, it is a slap in the face to the hardworking, dedicated employees of this institution, who have tirelessly serviced this community despite severe understaffing, arbitrary pay practices that lead to severe earning gaps, and frequent accusatory interrogations related to how staff uses the leave guaranteed by our benefits packages.

During the recent Board of Trustees meeting on 9/20/2023, neither the Board nor Dr. McCurdy offered concrete information or an adequate response to the concerns raised by Mr. Andrzejewski's reporting. Local 1870 will continue to monitor the situation and advocate for the bargaining union members of BCCC.
